PROVENANCE

The Lloyd P. Jones Gallery Photograph Collection was transferred to the University Archives from Facility and Real Estate Services in May 2014 (Accession number 2014: 019).

ARRANGEMENT

The Lloyd P. Jones Gallery Photograph Collection is organized into two series: Frank Ross Photographs and Nova Studios Photographs. Each series is further organized into subseries based on the binders where the images were originally housed. Each subseries is arranged according to its original order.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The Lloyd P. Jones Memorial Gallery was dedicated on November 11, 1972 in the first floor of the Gimble Gymnasium by the family of Lloyd Peniston Jones (1895-1971). Jones was a 1907 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, where his track performance won him a spot on the 1908 United States Olympic Team. The Gallery consists of works by noted sculptor and Penn professor R. Tait McKenzie (1867-1938). The gallery was expanded to include the Harry Fields Gallery of the Sculptures of Joe Brown shortly after the death of Dr. Harry Fields (1911-1986). Fields had been a student athlete at Haverford College and wrestled professionally to pay his way through the University of Pennsylvania's Medical School. In 1965 Fields was tasked by President Gaylord Harnwell to reform the University's athletic program. The addition of the Fields Gallery included many works by athlete and sculptor Joe Brown (1909-1985) who had apprenticed under McKenzie for seven years.

In 1998 the galleries were removed from Gimble Gymnasium to allow for construction of a new fitness center. To make the artwork more accessible to the general public, the galleries are now displayed in the Samson Common in public areas of the University Bookstore, Inn at Penn, and Faculty Club.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Lloyd P. Jones Gallery Photographic Collection consists of professional photographs documenting the galleries and sculptures while it was located at the Gimble Gymnasium. The first set of photographs was taken by Frank Ross, and consists of individual photographs of the R. Tait McKenzie sculptures. The second set was taken by Nova Studios, and consists of negatives, contact sheets, prints and a photograph log for 28 rolls of film that document the gallery including the works by Joe Brown.

The photographs in this collection are for reference purposes only. Requests for rights and reproductions of individual sculptures should be referred to the Office of the Curator.

Additional information on the Lloyd P. Jones Gallery can be found in the News and Public Affairs Records (UPF 8.5). Additional information on R. Tait McKenzie can be found in the R. Tait McKenzie Papers (UPT 50 MCK37).

Information on the current location of sculptures in the Gallery can be found at: <http://www.facilities.upenn.edu/maps/locations/mckenzie-brown-galleries>
